

Non-Immigrant ED Visa (Student Visa)

NON-ED: to study at Non-Formal School or learning Thai Language course at University – Suspended –

If you are currently outside of Canada, you must apply for a Visa in the country you are currently located

Step 1 – Online e-Visa Application

The applicant who does not have a valid visa or re-entry permit must apply for a visa by: complete the online e-Visa Application at <https://thaievisa.go.th/> and upload the following documents in PDF format:

- A Passport (JPEG format)
 - A passport size photo (2x2 or bigger/smaller) taken within the last 6 months (JPEG format)
 - A letter from the school/University confirming the enrollment, requesting a visa
 - A copy the license of the educational institution
 - A copy of the director's license
 - A copy of the manager's license
 - A letter from the department concerned under the Ministry of Education, or in the case of lower academic levels, a letter from the governor, requesting a visa
- For non-Canadian citizen, a copy of permanent resident alien card or a copy of valid Canadian visa with a letter proof of employment (we don't accept pay stubs)/ letter proof of full-time student status
 - Fee – $130 for single entry. There will be NO REFUND if visa application is rejected or you apply for wrong type of visa.

To Remind: Your visa request may be denied when:

- (1) upload unprepared documents and photo;
 - (2) information uploaded does not meet requirement; and
 - (3) applying for wrong visa.
- You must complete the online application with your full name, as it appears on the passport. If completed incorrectly, you will have to re-apply for the new one and re-submit the payment. Please note that the form cannot be modified after the payment is made.

Step 2 – Submit Application

Upon completion of an online visa application from the applicant, the Royal Thai Consulate-General will review the application. If the application is approved, the visa will be issued electronically to the applicant's email provided in the application. Applicants no longer have to submit the original passport to the Consulate-General.
